The sun and sea shine on the sea with the crystalline blue of the clear, clean sky, and nature conquers you with its radiant beauty. Sometimes, not far from the olive trees, outcrops bear testament to ancient civilisations enhancing the uniqueness of these places. Here art and culture are deeply intertwined, creating an irresistible allure for those in search of enduring emotions, destined to be indelibly impressed in memory. Perhaps that is the reason why a journey to discover the places of origin of Extra Virgin Olive Oil is an experience that satisfies both the eye and the mind.
